

“Prayer, Music, and the Psalms”
Psalm 151-158

On Wednesday, April 15, 2020, Sister Nichole Roberson of the District of Columbia led our 7:00pm Bible Class on “Prayer, Music, and the Psalms.” In this session Sister Roberson reminded us the Book of Psalms was the hymn book of the early church complete with music, prayer, and worship. After we explored psalms such as Psalm 121, Psalm 51, and Psalm 3, members were invited to write their own psalms. Below are the psalms our members shared. Please find edification in them.

Psalm 151

A psalm of Carolyn Bailey

I will Praise you O God
I will adhere to your Counsel
My relationship will be stronger in you
Penetrate my heart and spirit with your Precious Holy Ghost.

Psalm 152

A Psalm of Natalie Ingram

Father, you are my sun every morning
My strength everyday
I wouldn't dare take a step without you directing the way
Leading, Guiding, Comforting and Keeping me
Oh Lord, I am FOREVER your child

Psalm 153

A Psalm of Sonia Rose

Thank you, Lord, for your unfailing love,
for your grace and mercy,
for your blessings,
for your sacrifice,
for your son Jesus Christ.

Psalm 154

A Psalm of Karen Scott

Let us cry out to the Lord.
Let us lift up his holy name.
Let us rejoice.
Let us confess our sins.
O God I confess.

Psalm 155

A Psalm of Reggie Sherrill

Each and every day we are blessed with begins with a sunrise.
I chose to use praise verses:
The name of the Lord is to be praised.
Through all things, good, and bad keep your eyes on God.
Watching the morning sunrise is a celebration of God's work and goodness.
Praise God with all my heart, from whom all my blessing flow.
Look to the hills from which my help cometh.
To God belongs all the praise.

Psalm 156

A Psalm of Celestine Thomas

O Lord out of the depths of my soul I cry heal my vocal chords that as I sing,
the lyrics are strong and powerful.
That those in Worship will be healed and
You will be glorified

Psalm 157

A Psalm of Joe L. Thomas, Sr.

I love the Lord because He heard my cry
and pitied every groan
and Bless the Lord O my soul and all that is within me
bless His holy name
O give thanks unto the Lord for He is good and
His mercy endureth forever
(A compilation of Psalms)

Psalm 158

A Psalm of Yvondria Thomas

Who O Lord is like You?

Certainly, No one

Who can touch my heart like You do?

Certainly, No one

Who knows everything about me?

Certainly, You do

I am blessed that I know You

But Certainly, more blessed that You

Love Me
